

Democrats Determined To Tap Surplus Fund Despite Opposition

By DONALD C. HANSEN
Maine Reporter

ACQUITS—The Democratic legislative leadership will probably announce today that it will attempt to tap the surplus fund for the purpose of financing a new state highway program.

The bill would be introduced by Rep. James M. McLaughlin, a Democrat from the York district. It would require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

The bill would also require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

SEVERAL IMPERVIA—Democratic legislators also are expected to introduce legislation to require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

The bill would also require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

The bill would also require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

The release of the Democratic bill to spend money, $13 million, is expected to be announced today.

The bill would require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

The bill would also require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

WHILE EXACT COST—The cost of the program is expected to be announced today.

The bill would require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

The bill would also require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

Spring Is Blossoming

green, 100 per cent sunshine and a sea breeze. Thursday the weatherman looks for cooler weather, but predicts it won't be noticeable because the breeze will be from the land out to sea. (By Staff Photographer Johnson)

City to Propose eto Plan For Antipollution Program

By WILLIAM H. WILLIAMSON
City Hall Reporter

Portland will amend its antipollution ordinance to include a provision for the establishment of a city planning board.

The board would be composed of representatives from various city departments and the public.

Lunik Hits Moon, But Not Softly

MOONWAF—The Soviet satellite satellite on the moon at least a partial success and the landing failure, the Russian Union announced its apparent effort to put Lunik 3 on the moon. The satellite was launched on May 13, 1965.

2,400 More U.S. Troops Are Landed In Viet Nam

SARGON, South Viet Nam, reported that 2,400 more U.S. troops were landed in Viet Nam.

The troops were landed at the port of Saigon.

Sunday Liquor Sales Bill Passes Key House Test

ACQUITS—The House of Representatives passed a bill today that would allow Sunday liquor sales.

The bill would require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

JFK Memorial Set Friday

Mrs. Kennedy Heads Delegation to England

LONDON—Mrs. John F. Kennedy will head a delegation to England to mark the 100th anniversary of the birth of John F. Kennedy.

News, Features On The Inside

Generally fair, sunny and cool. Friday, Feb. 1965. Report Page 44.

DEMOCRATS HIRE from downtown Washington to the Pentagon to prevent further work on the Viet Nam bill.

SEVEN FAVOR BILLS

The bill would allow Sunday liquor sales from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The bill would require the state to contribute $1 million to the federal highway program.

"SLIGHTLY SCARLET"

775-3151

Chaffin

JOHN PAYNE

RHONDA FLEMING

9:30 • TONIGHT

CHANNEL 13

See list Theater

John John Meets A Friend

Clicking the hand of his mother, Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, John Kennedy turned to talk with Lord Harelech in London, who as Sir C. Gore was Britain's ambassador to Washington. In the background are Mrs. Edward M. Kennedy, left, and Robert F. Kennedy, holding hand of Caroline Kennedy, Lord Harelech, and Sir C. Gore.