OUR INTENTION

Sometimes we need visual cues to remind us of our physical and emotional intentions.

Cues that remind us to breathe.

To be strong.

To let go of the things that do not serve us.

To heal.

To love deeply.

These yoga mats depict actual chakra panels lovingly assembled over hundreds of hours.

The panels are crafted from glass and semi-precious stones, each object carefully selected for its symbolic meaning.

My hope is that these mats provide visual cues that help you live a Fuller life.

IRIS CHAKRA
INTENTION

Inspiring your highest state of health, illuminating life's purpose.

This chakra panel inspires healing, optimism and meaning. The crown chakra includes amethyst for cleansing, guiding and clarity.
Sugilite helps us find our true path and reason for being. The stones pull us away from pain and towards healing and harmony. Geometric patterns are simultaneously grounding and energizing: they echo the key lines of the earth and the electric lines of the human energy systems used in Chinese medicine.
